Women's Soccer League Tournament

The McGill Martlets emerged as the team to beat after last weekend's QSSF women's soccer league tournament. Kathryn Durand scored seven goals to help the Martlets remain undefeated in league play. All games were played at Concordia University's Loyola Stadium and count in the QSSF.

Saturday morning Concordia beat Chicoutimi 8-0. Heidi Jones and Isabelle Delage each had 3 goals while Alisha Reilly-Roe and Chantal Golding added singles. Chicoutimi later lost to Sherbrooke 2-0 on goals by Eleni Galanis and Annie Godbout.

McGill defeated Sherbrooke 2-0 in their first game on goals by Barbara Bruckert and Kathryn Durand.

The last game of the day matched up Concordia and McGill. Isabelle Delage opened the scoring for Concordia at the 10 minute mark. Concordia's goals remained unanswered until the 51st minute of play when Kathryn Durand scored the equalizer. Durand put the game away for McGill by scoring at the 84th, 86th and 87th minute of play. The final score was McGill 4 Concordia 1.

Round robin play resumed on Sunday. McGill beat Chicoutimi 7-0. Natalie Ioanidis had 3 goals, Durand had a pair, Stephanie Hart and Leslie Byrne had singles.

Concordia won their game against Sherbrooke 3-1. Isabelle Delage had 2 goals, putting her weekend total to 6. Chantal Golding scored Concordia's third goal while Nathalie Lauzon scored what turned out to be Sherbrooke's first goal against Concordia in three years.
